

Reagan Orchestra Booster Club
Fall Concert General Meeting Minutes
Approved
October 7th and 15th, 2019

Prior to the Winter Concerts, Mr. Elizondo welcomed parents and concert attendees and introduced Nathan Shapiro, ROBC President. Mr. Shapiro updated attendees with some of the activities of the board so far this year as well as some of the goals for the year:

- Attract more parents to be involved with the booster club and grow the orchestra
  - we would like to see more active participation and everyone is invited to attend our monthly executive committee meetings
  - everyone can reach out to Mr. Shapiro at ROBCPresident@gmail.com
  - you can also keep up with ROBC events and news at the website www.reaganorchestra.weebly.com
- Market the orchestra events to be on par with other school events
  - building attendance at concerts and bringing our brand to the level of other Reagan organizations
- Orchestra Program Funding:
  - scholarship program
  - trip funding
  - bass endpin wheel
  - furniture for converted library, etc.

Mr. Shapiro also confirmed the board has reviewed and finalized financials with the previous board and it will be posted on the website by November 1st. John Horton, ROBC Treasurer, will provide a financial overview at the beginning of our Winter Concerts in December. He also reminded everyone that Mr. Elizondo sent a trip survey and requested that everyone please respond.

He then introduced Meg Lorente, ROBC Vice President, and she discussed the two types of ROBC fundraisers:

- Contributions go toward student accounts:
  - Candle and Greenery sales – use this money for trips or end of year orchestra banquet
- ROBC fundraiser for general fund:
  - Spirit Nights, second Thursday of each month
  - November 11th at Mod Pizza
  - November 18th Kendra Scott – 20% comes back to the orchestra
  - 1st and 3rd Wednesday after school selling Bundt cakes for $5 – last time sold 72 cakes in 7 minutes, next sale will have 120 cakes for sale

Next General Meeting: Next General Meeting will be at the Winter Concerts on December 11th and 12th at 7:00 pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Jo Ella Terhesh
ROBC Secretary
